When detachments of divinity students in New York go to haunts of infamy to study vice and get rude treatment from the management they should be satisfied with the valuable lessons of experience and not try to air their grievances in the courts.

ALTHOUGH there are one hundred and fifty applicants for the Paris consul generalship, it is intimated that the appointment may strike some unsuspecting citizen who has staid at home and attended to the missionary work of the M. Y. O. B. Society.

SATURDAY was an eventful day in the life of Ferdinand Ward. In the forenoon he received his sentence of ten years in the penitentiary. In the afternoon he was sent to Sing Sing. At least half a dozen of the men who were, in various ways, associated with him in his crimes should follow him.

THERE will be a grand rally of the Republicans of Alexandria county in the city of Alexandria this evening at which Mr. W. H. Hart and others will do some entertalning and instructive talking. There ought to be a good delegation from Washington in attendance to encourage the Virginia brethren.

As a matter of fact no man knows positively which party is going to win in New York, but the weight of probabilities is de-cidedly in favor of the Republicans. We think it a fair statement of the case to say that the Republican managers are much more confident than their opponents and have good grounds for the faith they ex-

Tur report of the Utah commission may te regarded rather as official confirmation of what was previously known than as adding anything to the available stock of knowledge in relation to the situation of affairs in Utah. THE London Times prints a summary of the Anglo-Turkish convention respecting Egypt that is vouched for as un-doubtedly authentic. Turkey implicitly sanctions the English occupation of Egypt; England recognizes Turkish suzerainty; two commissioners, one Turkish and one English, are to be appointed with powers which amount to a general right of supervision of the khedive's administration. The English occupation is to continue till these two commissioners agree to order a restoration of the khedive's authority and the indicated frontier is defined. Then they will report to their governments, who will consider what ought to be done next. The New York Tribune's London special says it is doubted in Cairo whether the sultan will ever appoint a commissioner to excute the ion, but Sir Drummond Wolff's diplomatic success is conceded.

Equal Facilities For All. Elsewhere in this issue of the Engunia CAN will be found a very interesting correspondence between Mr. W. H. H. Hart and Dr. J. C. Welling, president of the Columbian University, in relation to the lack of facilities afforded in the District of Columbia for the study of the law by colored persons.

There can be no question at all that as good facilities for the acquisition of all needful learning should be enjoyed by the as are at the disposal of the whites.

That such is not the case at this time in regard to the study of the law, would seem to be evident from the statements made by Mr. Hart. Just what measure or measures should be adopted in the premises we are not prepared to suggest without such investiga-tion of the subject as we have not yet had time to make. But public policy as well as correct public sentiment, demands that all grounds of just complaint be speedily re-

Virginia and New York. Of the various states holding election conserved New York and Virginia are the can be regarded as baying a very important tearing on the national political situation. And the national significance of either or both of these contests causet, in any event, be so strong as to foreast beyond a doubt the result of the next presidential cam-Should Virginia and New York both go

Democratic to-morrow, the Democrats will simply have held their own, for both states were counted in the Democratic column in

Should both states go Republican the victorious party would feel that good manage-ment on its part, including judicious nominations, would almost certainly bring it out ahead in November, '88.

But the Democrats, even in face of such a disaster, would not despair. They have faced many defeats, and they do not give up so long as a hope remains. Losing the Empire state and the Old Dominion this year would arouse them to a desperate struggle in the congressional elections of '86, and an unexampled expenditure of energy two years later.

If the Republicans should lose Virginia and gain New York, or vice versa, they will feel that their cause is in the ascendant and the Democrats will conclude that the possession of the federal administration is not a tower of strength.

From the very inception of the Virginia impaign it has been the constant aim and effort of this rewspaper to impress on the Republican mand of the north the importance of this struggle in a national We have urged that if the Democratic solidity of the south was ever to be 'invaded" this was the time, this the fitting opportunity to enter on the task of its ssolution. We have shown that, in order to recover and hold lost ground in the south, the Republicans of the north must make common cause with ex-confederates who are tired of bourbon intolerance and ready to cut loose from the party that preaches and practices prescription and rules by force or fraud, or both, wherever such agencies are required to put the minority on top of the majority.

If the response from the north had been more general: if Virginia had been "invaded" a month ago by dozens of liberal. minded, warm-hearted Republican statesmen from the east, the middle states, and the west; if the struggle there had been made more emphatically national and the false notions of the sims and purposes of the Republican party effectually dispelled by honest pre-sentation of the truth, as it has been preached by Senator Sherman at Peters surg and Richmond, the strong hope we now have of a Republican victory to-morrow would be so much stronger as to be utterly freed from doubt.

It is due to the management of the Re publican campaign in Virginia to say that it has been simply superb. We believe the chances of success are strongly on the Republican side. It is the expectation of the REPUBLICAN to record a victory on both the state and legislative tickets-if there is anything like an honest election-and this expectation is based, in great part, on the tellef that no campaign was ever more wisely managed than this has been.

The Democratic stake in New York is literally immense. The administration stake in that state is even greater than that of its party.

Recause New York was the pivotal state in the last presidential campaign she was CALIGRAPH COPYIST. permitted to name the presidential candidate for the national Democratic organization. Because Mr. Cleveland had been phenomenally successful in getting Repubcan votes for mayor of Buffalo and for governor of the state, he was named as the leader, and he was elected by the votes of disgrantled Republicans, commonly called Mugwumps. The federal administration is, to all intents and purposes, a New York administration. It has been east and controlled with a view to the retention of New York in the Democratic column. In its personnel and its policy it is a New York establishment. While the President and his New York Secretaries have not actually and openly managed the campaign in their state, their sympathies and their money have freely flowed in that direction. For these reasons the defeat of Hill, which we believe will be the outcome of the strug-gle, will be an irreparable blow to the first and only Democratic administration which the country has seen since the trembling hand of James Buchanan let go the helm of the ship of state.

Ar Cincinnati on Saturday Mrs. Ellen Finn plended guilty to making false affidavits in support of a pension claim, and was sentenced in the United States court Saturday afternoon to one year's imprisonment. She had continued to draw a pension after she bad married a second time. It ought to be possible for the government to devise some plan in relation to widows by which poor persons would not be tempted to comnit crimes. It is good policy to encourage marriage, but our laws discourage it. confess that a solution of the problem is not apparent, but hope that statesmen may to find some way of doing right without offering temptations to criminal
